

Ellenville Public Library & Museum

Rules of Conduct

The Ellenville Public Library & Museum Board of Trustees invites the public to enjoy the library, its materials and its special services and programs.

For the comfort & safety of everyone, we ask your cooperation in observing the following rules. Please do not:

- Misuse or move library equipment.
- Leave children under ten years old unattended in the library or on the library grounds.
- Loiter.
- Talk or laugh in a loud voice.
- Use obscene and/or abusive language.
- Place feet on tables or chairs.
- Run, jump, or horse around.
- Eat or drink.
- Play audio and electronic equipment that is audible to others.
- No pets allowed.
- Block doorways or walkways with bicycles or strollers.
- Solicit, sell, petition or gamble.
- Talk on mobile devices.
- Engage in behavior which is inappropriate or disruptive to other library users.

The violation of any rule may lead to the suspension of library privileges or exclusion from the library premises.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION!

Amended by the Board of Trustees
March 20, 2017